

National Pedagogical Dragomanov University International Association of Rectors of Pedagogical Universities in Europe

Summer school proposals

Who are we?

National Pedagogical Dragomanov University is a public higher education institution accredited by Ministry of Education and Science of Ukraine, specialized on teacher training, as well as, law, political science, economics, ecology, design, linguistics, tourism, management, social work, sociology, psychology, philosophy etc. (full list of our faculties can be found on our website <http://www.npu.edu.ua/en/faculties-and-specialties>). National Pedagogical Dragomanov University is the flagship of pedagogical education in Ukraine. The university prepares students in all forms of training (full-time education, evening studying, extramural studies, external studies, parallel, distance learning) and all levels (Bachelor, Master, PhD).

Summer Schools Key Benefits

- Develop an understanding of a number of professional and cross-cutting issues
- Benefit from the expert visions of some of the brightest representatives in the field
- Study in small groups in university-style tutorials
- Explore the historic city of Kyiv
- Experience university life in Ukraine

Duration – 7 days

Dates: classes are offered at any time for the group of at least 5 persons.

Language: English, Russian, Ukrainian (on request)

Certificate of attendance: after Training School completion, participants will receive certificate of attendance.

Fee

Participation fee is 300 euro.

The fee includes:

- ✓ Training program
- ✓ Coffee-breaks
- ✓ Transfers to and from Kyiv airport
- ✓ Printed handouts
- ✓ Cultural trips

Please note that flights to and from Ukraine are not included in the price.

Topics Covered

1. Summer school “Tragedies of 20st century: Holocaust, Holodomor, Chernobyl disaster, World War II”

1. Holodomor – policy of crime against humanity in Ukraine
2. Holocaust – mass execution of Jews
3. Chernobyl history, background, and nowadays challenges
4. The largest armed conflict in human history - World War II – unknown facts

2. Summer school “East Europe otherwise: affects, margins, and imaginaries in the post-soviet era”

1. Transitions period in early Democracies: Modes and Outcome
2. Globalization and informatization influence factors on the state of modern democracy
3. Orange revolution and Revolution of Dignity: “Ukrainian-style of decommunization”
4. State-building in transition democracy: aiming for sustainable development

3. Summer school “Ukrainian philosophy: crossroads between East and West”

1. Philosophical traditions in Ukraine
2. Ukrainian philosophy
3. Philosophers in European discourse
4. Hryhoriy Skovoroda - Ukrainian Socrates
5. Modern and contemporary East European philosophy: trends and challenges

4. Summer school ”Ukrainian Studies: from Kievan Rus to Revolution of Dignity ”

1. Bloodlands: Ukrainian History
2. Ukrainian literature and folklore
3. Ukrainian art: traditions and contemporary artwork styles
4. Ukrainian transit: current political and economic situation in Ukraine

5. Summer school “Immersion in Ukrainian lifestyle”

1. Modern Ukraine: three revolutions and one goal
2. Democracy and Demography: Challenges of Digital World
3. Human rights in Ukraine
4. Geopolitics. International relations of Ukraine
5. Social Policy trends in Eastern European countries
6. Globalization and sustainable development in modern Ukraine
7. Gender equality in Ukraine
8. Political system of Ukraine
9. World Educational Trends: Challenges and Sources
10. Contemporary history of Ukraine
11. Creative economy and innovation: culturological cut
12. Freedom of speech: Ukrainian style

6. Archaeological expedition

Duration – 10 days. Participation fee: $ 800

On request, tailor-made programs can be offered.